Describe your current show?

Joel: It's an evening of music from the Everly Brothers and Simon and Garfunkel. It's a show that has audiences smiling, cheering, and singing along. It's a show full of songs that the audience knows... Wake Up Little Susie, All I Have To Do Is Dream, Bye Bye Love, Sound of Silence, The Boxer, and on and on! People have remarked after the shows about how they've been singing the songs all the way out to the parking lot and beyond! I know people are going to have fun and be glad they came!

How did you choose in particular the Everly Brothers & Simon and Garfunkel to pay tribute to?

Wayne: I've always loved the Everly Brothers and when Joel and I discovered we had a nice vocal blend I suggested we should try some Everly Brothers. Joel grew up listening to Simon and Garfunkel and suggested we learn some of their music as they were heavily influenced by the Everly Brothers. Later we thought it would be a good idea to pay tribute to these two iconic duos, as there is such a strong link between them. They even toured together at one point.

You're backed up by THE VINTAGE ELECTRIC BAND. What can you tell us about them?

Joel: We have put together an amazing four piece band who have a passion for this music!

They are all true artists and complement Byrd Dawg perfectly!

Do you have a personal favourite song of the artists you pay tribute to?

Joel: Hmmmm.....that's a tough one. There are so many good ones. I quite like the Everly's "Let It Be Me". It's just a beautiful song. For Simon and Garfunkel... again, that's difficult. "Homeward Bound" and "Bridge Over Troubled Water" really speak to me.

Wayne: It's hard to pick a favourite, but from the Everly Brothers it would probably be All I Have To Do Is Dream. From Simon and Garfunkel it would be Homeward Bound. Both those songs have captivated me since I was young.
